BECOME FRIENDS OF BRERA

KNOWLEDGE, CONSERVATION, ENHANCEMENT

The non-profit Association of the Friends of Brera and the Milanese Museums, one of the oldest in Italy, has always worked to promote knowledge, enhancement and conservation of the historic Palazzo di Brera and the Milanese Museums.

Founded in 1926, its main purpose has always been to bring the city closer to Brera, offering its members valuable opportunities for education and an exchange of ideas, ensuring the museum receives steady support from collectors, connoisseurs and lovers of pure art.

The means we use to ensure this support range from direct sponsorships, restoration work, fundraising campaigns and donations of important artworks to enrich the collections.

The association also seeks to find potential partner companies by ensuring mutual benefits for both parties. Individuals, companies and organizations that share its principles and purposes, such as social responsibility, cultural patronage, a love for our history and art, can help by their membership to make the Association a landmark in the cultural life of the city.

JOIN. SHARE. SUPPORT.
